Re: Revision of the Commission's Rules to Ensure Compatibility with Enhanced 911 Emergency Calling Systems, CC Docket No. 94-102

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Michael Amarosa, of TruePosition, Inc., David Don, and I met yesterday with John Muleta, Catherine Seidel, Dan Grosh, and Patrick Forster of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau. The purpose of the meeting was to introduce TruePosition to Mr. Muleta. During the course of the meeting, Mr. Amarosa described TruePosition, its products, their performance and the extent of commercial deployment to date. He also noted the Hatfield Report's observations on the challenges to full implementation of E911 throughout the nation and the progress being made toward achieving full implementation.

In accordance with the Commission's rules, I am submitting two copies of this letter.

Sincerely,

Philip L. Verveer
